

Roy Hinson Risk Management Scholarship

The North Carolina Society of Healthcare Risk Managers (NCASHRM) has established a scholarship honoring Roy Hinson, retired CEO of Stanly Regional Medical Center and a dedicated member of NC ASHRM. The scholarship is awarded in remembrance of Mr. Hinson's many contributions and dedication to Healthcare and to the field of Healthcare Risk Management. Mr. Hinson retired in January 2006 as Stanly Regional Medical Center's CEO and died the summer of 2006 following a brief illness.

The scholarship will include NCASHRM membership fee for 2010 and registration to one of the chapter's 2010 semi-annual education conferences, to include two-night hotel accommodations during the conference. (The total value of the scholarship is approximately $600). Qualified applicants must be employed by a organization that provides healthcare in North Carolina, work in the field of healthcare risk management, and demonstrate a need for financial support in order to join and participate in this professional organization of healthcare risk managers. The deadline to apply is March 1, 2010.

If you would like to apply for the Roy Hinson Scholarship, please complete the application and submit to Rina Borg as instructed at the bottom of the application below.

- Carla Cook of Blue Ridge Regional Hospital in Spruce Pines, North Carolina is the 2009 recipient of the Roy Hinson Scholarship.

*Please note, once awarded, this scholarship is not transferable to another person.
